PROSPICIO

THE PLACEMENT CELL

Prospicio - The Placement Cell functions to bring forth training and professional opportunities to students throughout their academic career. It continually maintains close relations with industry sources, organises on-campus training/recruitment, and informs students about placement options. Education consultants are also invited to speak to pupils about higher education opportunities in Indian and International Universities.

What we stand for :

Empowering women through education, awareness, literacy, and training and transforming them into dynamic global citizens with professional acumen.

What we believe in:

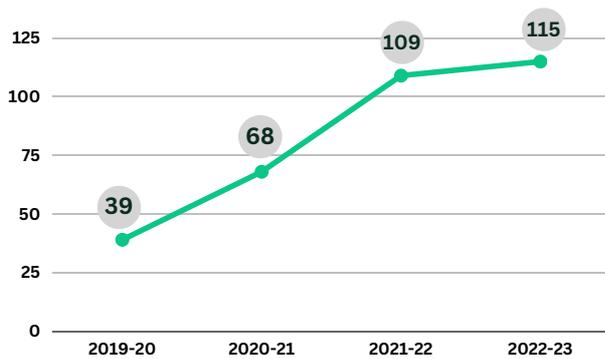

Infusing positive optimism and generating value in any capacity feasible for both students and the organisation by creating a robust ecosystem for potential job searchers and recruiters.

What we strive for:

We aim to provide students with quality placements at reputable firms with rigorous standards of professionalism.

PLACEMENTS
